WASHINGTON, March 5.—Considerable

feeling exists in our neighboring city of ## Alexandria, Va., being said that the col## ored people intend to enter their votes for ## candidates of their own selection, for municipal ## elections, to be held tomorrow.

The colored people of Alexandria have ## appointed the Mayor of Alexandria and Judge

Moore to proceed to Washington and con## sult the Attorney General of the United ## States upon the question of the legality of ## negro votes, should any be offered.

The Alexandria Gazette says the idea that ## negroes have a right to vote grows out of ## the passage by Congress of the Reconstruction

bill.

The Washington Chronicle of this morn## ing says:

"Today the first election in the South,

since the passage of the Reconstruction bill, ## takes place in Alexandria, Va. At some ## thrusts have been made by the rebel el## ements in that city, and some fears are enter## tained by some of the colored people, that ## the election will be a scene of violence.

The colored people, it is said, are well ## informed as to the law, and are determined ## to exercise their right of suffrage.

It is understood that prominent Southern ## men intend to contest the law as soon as a ## case can be brought before the United ## States Supreme Court.

SECOND DISPATCH.

WASHINGTON, March 5, P. M.—According ## to the information from Alexandria, Va., ## the Republicans held a mass meeting at ## Frederick Hall, yesterday afternoon, and ## declined to give his opinion on the question ## of a short time, but said he was inclined ## to believe they would not be thus entitled ## until the Government had formally taken ## possession of the State.

Gen. Canby, commanding this Depart## ment, in response to a request from Gov## ernment, reported to the War Department ## that the colored people of Alexandria had
